JUDGMENT

The Plaintiff and Defendant in this case were in frozen fish transaction for some time. The Plaintiff took an action in the small claims court in order to recover N1,596,250.00 debt from the Defendant from the transaction between 2015 - 2016. The Plaintiff informed the court that the Defendant deposited title document of his house to him as a collateral. But still up to the time he took this action he did not set off the debt.

The Defendant informed the court that he is aware of the debt but he has not been in the market for the past two years until recently. He promised to settle the outstanding debt to the Plaintiff.

The Plaintiff applied to court to enter consent judgment on N1,596,250.00 between the two parties. The Defendant consented to the Plaintiff's application.

Therefore, the Defendant is hereby ordered to pay N1,596,250.00 to the Plaintiff as debt arising from frozen fish business.

Also the above term is hereby entered as consent judgment, binding on all the parties.
